And the winner is...
reddot award: product design 2009

reddot design award

Dear Mr. David Rafter, dear Mr. Kevin Rafter,

We are proud to let you know that the innovative and international kitchen furnishing range „Ypsilon by Geba“ is awarded with the this year's reddot award: product design 2009.

The international reputed jury of experts had to make its choice out of 1.400 participating companies from 49 countries with in total 3.231 transmittals of high quality products. A explicit evidence how coveted and approved the „red dot“ seal of quality is.

With this specific investment and creative activity the Geba Möbelwerke are a well positioned company and ahead of the competition. This award and the Geba kitchen range will make the Geba partners more successful in the market and rouse the disposition to buy.

For further information about the furnishing range „Ypsilon by Geba“ kindly allow us to provide you with the enclosed summary of ranges and the photography.

If you did not use the possibility of presenting a „Ypsilon by Geba“ display in your studio you should make this investment by now.

The Geba-Team will support you in doing so and looks forward to a more intensive cooperation with you.

Best regards

Geba Möbelwerke GmbH
